12/16/06 48 HOURS SPECIAL: "The Mystery of Christmas" - Correspondent Maureen Maher journeys to the Holy Land to investigate the story of the birth of Jesus. 48 HOURS searches for archeological proof of the Biblical accounts, decodes the messages hidden in the scriptures and examines starkly different versions of Christmas. Maher explores the lands of the Bible with Professor Ben Witherington, a conservative scholar and evangelical minister, in a return to the 'historical bedrock' where history and faith intersect. Witherington takes 48 HOURS to the cave in Bethlehem where he says Jesus was born; the excavations of ancient Nazareth; Carpernaum, where Jesus' ministry was based; and the stone city of Petra, where he claims the Wise Men passed through. The broadcast examines numerous questions. Was Jesus born in Bethlehem of Nazareth? Were there shepherds at Christ's birth, or magi, or both? Was there a guiding star the night of the birth? Is December 25th the true birth date of Christ? How accurate are the different infancy narratives in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke? How much creative license did the Gospel authors take? Witherington makes the case for the Virgin Birth. The veracity of the belief is questioned by Professor John Dominic Crossan, a former Roman Catholic monk, and Princeton University Professor Elaine Pagels. In September 2003, the Army opened an official investigation and on November 7, 2003, a tip led to the discovery of his body. Nearly four months later, four soldiers who were last with him -- Jacob Burgoyne, Alberto Martinez, Mario Navarette and Douglas Woodcoff -- were arrested. Burgoyne, previously diagnosed with PTSD (post-traumatic stress disorder), identified Martinez as the sole killer. Woodcoff agreed to cooperate with authorities once murder charges against him were dropped. A jury found Martinez and Navarette guilty of murder with a sentence of life in prison. Burgoyne, who pled guilty to voluntary manslaughter, received a twenty year sentence. Woodcoff pled guilty to concealing a death and was sentenced to five years of probation. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul Ryan, Daria Hirsch) (OAD: 05/20/06). Update for this rebroadcast: Navarette's motion for a new trial was denied this week. He bought the birth certificate of a deceased child, Nathan Wayne Coleman, took on his identity and, in 1996, fled to Leeds, England where he was undiscovered for almost eight years. On December 26, 2003, Leeds police apprehended a stolen car; the driver was Bieber. In the process of being handcuffed, he opened fire on the three unarmed arresting officers and escaped. One officer died of his wounds and a nationwide manhunt was launched. Bieber was finally caught, was tried for the murder of the police officer, and sentenced to life in prison. Danielle LaBelle divorced Bieber in 2003. There are no plans to try him for the murder of Markus Mueller. "Sacred Earth, Sacred People" - an interfaith religion special profiling the work of Youth Ministries for Peace and Justice, a grassroots community organizing group in the South Bronx, New York City. Drawing its teen members from this crowded, polluted urban area, the group teaches young people to take responsibility for themselves and their environment. Major projects of the group include a plan to clean up the Bronx River and develop parkland along its shores. This involves turning an abandoned concrete plant into a park and, if possible, getting the state to raze the Sheridan Expressway, which runs close to the river and causes noise and pollution. The broadcast also visits Freedom Farm in Mt. Hope New York, where urban teens are exposed to agriculture, cooking and proper diet. Also interviewed are spokespersons from Genesis Farm in Blairstown, New Jersey, a community-supported agricultural program. Among those interviewed are: Alexie Torres-Fleming, Executive Director, YMPJ; Ajamu Kitwana, Deputy Director, YMPJ; Stephen Oliveira, environmental justice educator, YMPJ; Dr. Larry Rasmussen, Professor Emeritus of Social Ethics, Union Theological Seminary; Marie-France Laport, community organizer, YMPJ; Jose Dobles, director of youth programs, YMPJ; Bartus Allen, wellness coordinator, YMPJ; Edgar Hayes, a NYC firefighter and part-time farmer; Anthony Thomas, intern, community development, YMPJ.
